

On April 13, 2004, Governor Schwarzenegger, signed AB 1467, reinstating the Restorative Technique (R.T.) examination through the year 2008. Below are some highlights of the bill:

- In order to qualify for the R.T. examination, you must have passed Part I and Part II of the National Board of Dental Examiners' examination by December 31, 2003.
- You must provide the Dental Board your National Boards Part I and Part II scores no later than July 12, 2004.
(Note: if you have taken a previous R.T. examination or have already supplied your National Board scores, you do not have to resubmit them.)
- Applications, when filed, will require a United States mailing address and will have to be filed by mail.
- Please check our website for additional information regarding the R.T. examination schedule and application deadlines.

The new requirements are now contained in Bus. & Prof. Code § 1628.2. You are responsible for knowing and adhering to any and all requirements to qualify for the R.T. examination.
